

MURPHY DECKER HENSEN & COOK-OLSON, P.C.

EXPERIENCED. TRUSTED. RESULTS.

Murphy Decker Hensen & Cook-Olson, P.C. is committed to achieving a successful result for every client. While our trial record speaks for itself, we realize that heading to trial is usually the last option for a client to consider. We regularly counsel clients on risk management and contractual matters to minimize the chance of future conflicts. When the parties to a dispute cannot reach an agreement, our attorneys know how to go to trial and win.

We provide top-quality legal representation with the kind of personal attention that our clients deserve. We congratulate Dan Murphy, Mike Decker, Steve Hensen (specially honored as a Top 100 Colorado lawyer) and Amy Cook-Olson for their recognition to 2012

Colorado Super Lawyers® and congratulate Greg Lindsay and Eric Kirby for their recognition to 2012 Colorado Rising Stars.

Our firm practices in the areas of construction law, medical malpractice, insurance defense, health care law, professional negligence, mass torts, commercial law, products liability, personal injury and general civil litigation. Our lawyers are licensed to handle cases in Colorado, Wyoming, Utah and Illinois.
